

*The Men and Ladies
Albany Ancient Order of Hibernians*

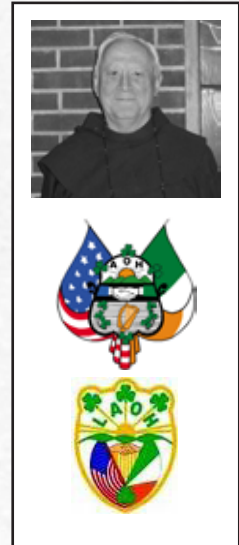

Invite you to join them in recognizing Fr. Capistran J. Hanlon, OFM, Sociology Professor Emeritus at Siena College, for his many years of service as Chaplain of the Men and Ladies AOH

Saturday, January 23, 2010

6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Albany AOH, 375 Ontario Street

$25/person ($5.00 is your tax deductible gift)*
Includes hors d'oeuvres, beer, and wine
Questions? Please call 518-438-8230

SIENAcollege

* Net proceeds of this event will benefit the The Men and Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians Capital Region Memorial Scholarship at Siena College, which honors men and women who have contributed to Irish America life and culture, and Christian values. Its first and most important Hibernian honoree is Fr. Henry Tansey, M.H.M. In addition, the scholarship honors Trooper William Dooley, founder of the New York State Police Pipe Band. Each honoree promoted Christian values and community service. The scholarship is aimed at helping upper classmen and/or transfer students living in the capital district and based on financial need.

___I/we will attend; enclosed is our check for $_____ made payable to Albany AOH; mail to
AOH, 375 Ontario Street, Albany, NY 12208

___In addition, we would like to make a separate gift to the AOH Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $_____ made payable to Siena College (memo AOH Scholarship Fund); mail to Siena College, Development & External Affairs, 515 Loudon Road, Loudonville, NY 12211

___I/we cannot attend but enclosed is our gift to the AOH Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $_____made payable to Siena College(memo AOH Scholarship Fund) ; mail to Siena College, Development & External Affairs, 515 Loudon Road, Loudonville, NY 12211

Name _____

Address _____

E-mail address _____ Phone _____